FESTIVAL TO BEGIN.

EVERYTHING IN READINESS FOR THE OPENING TO-MORROW EVENING

Three Great Concerts to Be Given-Point About the Artists Who Will Appear-Orchestra and Chorus.

On Monday night the Music Festival opens at the Mozart Academy.

Three grand concerts will be given—a grand popular concert on Monday night, a symphony concert on Tuesday right, and an oratorio concert on Wednesday night.

A full orchestra of forty, a chorus of over one hundred Richmond voices, and eight solo artists of highest reputation will ap-pear in programmes adapted alike to the taste of the musician and general music-lover.

Care has been taken in constructing the programmes to avoid heavy classical numbers, and yet offer such as shall interest the educated musician.

THE ORCHESTRA.

Last year Richmond had a visit from the finest orchestral body in this country—the Boston Symphony Orchestra—and their wonderful playing is well remembered. Other engagements in larger cities occupied all their available time this year, and in their place another Boston organization has been chosen, comprising all the favorite players of the well-known Germania Orchestra of that city, which is out for a six weeks' tour for the May festivals of northern cities.

THE ARTISTS. Of the eight solo artists secured for the Festival perhaps the one best known in Richmond is Adele Aus der Ohe, undoubt-whose superb performances make her popularity as great as her virtuosity. She has appeared in Richmond with the Juch Concert Company and other organizations. She appears Tuesday night.

Jennie Patrick Walker, the dramatic soprano, is a favorite with all oratorio audiences, possessing a strong, dramatic, yet sweet voice, fully capable of all demands made by such solos as the "Inflammatus" and the rôte of "Fair Ellen."

Rose Stewart, the lyric soprano, has had great success abroad, being called by European critics eine kline Patti (the little Patti.)

Gertrude Edmands, the contralto, is an-other experienced oratorio vocalist, whose popularity all over the country shows her popularity an every artistic capacity.

George J. Parker, the tenor, has a sweet,
George J. Parker, and superb method,

George J. Parker, the tenor, has a sweet, sympathetic voice and superb method, which, combined with his artistic feeling, causes him to be the favorite Boston tenor. Dr. B. Merrill Hopkinson, the popular Baltimore baritone is well known here. Victor Herbert, the conductor of the orchestra and violoncello soloist, is also known here, having visited the city with Juch. Thomas, and other musical organizations. He is a universal favorite. As a conductor he has a way of inspiring his men to their best efforts and rendering the selections he directs in the most inspirating as well as careful and artistic manner. THE TALENTED CONDUCTOR.

Mr. Clarence A. Marshall, the conductor of the Festival chorus and prime mover in the organization of the Festival, has had large experience in conducting, having been associate director with Carl Zerrahn before locating in Richmond. Under his able baton the chorus will sing confidently, and with an effect and efficiency which will surprise the public. The chorus appears Monday and Wednesday nights. WHITNEY, THE GREAT BASSO.

Last, but far from least of the vocalists, is the veteran basso, Myron W. Whitney, whose face is familiar to all music lovers whose face is familiar to all music lovers, and whose ponderous voice has no equal in this country.

With this strong list of artists distributed through the three nights' performances the festival has a variety and interest which few concerts of this character can have. All are first-class, experienced artists, and with the grand orchestra and efficient chorus the performances will give artists, and with the grand orderestra and efficient chorus the performances will give the andience a taste of the highest forms of musical art adequately and artistically rendered, developing and encouraging musical taste in the community and bringing numbers of strangers to the concerts from surrounding cities. THE PROGRAMMES.

On Monday night is the grand popular concert, including some familiar numbers and others which are not known. The suite for orchestra, "Peer Gynt," which was the piece de revisiance of the Boston Symphony Orchestra last year, will be played on this evening. Victor Herbert will be heard as 'cello solost only on this evening. Mr. Parker and the Festival chorus will render Gounod's inspiring "Sanctus," Miss Stewart will sing an aria from "Lucia," and some songs with piano-forte, and the orchestra will give several popular selections, including the picturesque "Slavonic" dances, by Dyorok. The programmes for succeeding nights can be seen on the "Festival Bullettin."

PUTURE FESTIVALS. It is for the public to make this festival such a success that future annual festivals may be a possibility. Concerts of this kind appeal to the non-theatre-going public and also to those who are interested in developing highest artistic tastes in the community, and the Academy will doubtless be crowded with a brilliant audience each night.

Brows at Monte Maria's May Festival.

Ere the bright May-day has advanced many hours a charming little May party was in progress at Monte Maria Academy. It was given by the Mother Superior of this institution as a recreative pastime to the young ladies who had been engaged in the spiritual exercise of a Retreat during the preceding days. All, however, had an squal share in the May-day sports.

The unsuspecting pupils, who anticipated nothing more than the accomplishment of their regular duties, little dreamed of the pleasant surprise awaiting them. After the usual exercises of the "month of May" the young ladies assembled in the hall, there to witness a scene as impressive as it was beautiful.

month of May" the young ladies assembled in the hall, there to witness a scene as impressive as it was beautiful.

In a bower prettily decorated with twining vines and freshly-gathered dowers the two graduates, Alisses Georgia Sharp and Grace Brauer, affired in purest white, were enthroned as queens of the fairy domain. After gracefully receiving the homage of their subjects the queens descended from their thrones and the coronation took place. The royal diadems were placed upon their fair brows by the maternal hands of the gentle Mother Superior.

After returning to their flower-decked thrones appropriate addresses were made to their majesties by the ladies of the court, to which the queens responded in a most graceful and affectionate manner. The fittle Floras then presented flowers, redolent of the love of their youthful hearts, while their sweet young voices blended in the merry May-song.

Mefreshments were served by the kind, houghtful Sisters, and all did justice to the abundant supply of sweets. All retraint was now thrown off, and the old sall, usually so caim and quiet, assumed a vely aspect. The walls recebood with the merry laughter of the happy groups scattered here and there, enjoying to their hearts' content that happiness which can alone be felt by the pure and innocent. Long will the memory of this gala-day at Monte Maria be enshrined in the hearts of its grateful pupils, and in the far fu-ture these sweet reminiscences will still bind their hearts to their fair "Alma Ma-ter."

Oh! when life's rapid race is run,
May we all meet in realms above,
Whore every heart will blend in one
And form a holy band of love."

THE FIRE DEPARTMENT.

Contemplated Enlargement of Engine Houses—New Steamer—A Donation.

Among the improvements in the Fire Department proposed by the Board of Fire Commissioners during the year is the enlargement of Hose-House No. 2, corner of Denny and Seventh streets, Fulton. The name of the company has been changed to No. 8 Engine Company. The building will be so altered and added to as to make it suitable for the accommodation of a steamer when it becomes necessary to put one there. Plans for the enlargement are being perfected by the Chief Engineer, who is an expert in such matters.

is an expert in such matters.

NEW ENGINE ORDERED.

The board has recently entered into a contract with the La France Steam Fire-Engine Company for the construction of a second-sized engine of the same general workmanship as No. 2, which was bought from that company. This engine is to take the place of one of the steamers which needs rebuilding, but it is not decided where it will be permanently located. When this machine shall have been delivered the department will be supplied with the equivalent of eight excellent steamers. The enlargement of the quarters of Engine Company No. 4 on Third street near Broad is also contemplated, and plans for this much-needed improvement have also been drawn by the Chief.

GOING TO MT. VERNON.

Official Visit Next Saturday of Board of Visitors of Virginia.

Saturday the 16th instant has been se Saturday the 10th instant has been selected by the Regent as the day on which the Board of Visitors from Virginia will be formally received at Mt. Vernon.

This board consists of W. W. Henry, Esq., Colonels L. Q. Washington and J. Bell Bigger, and Senators Taylor Berry and R. Walton Moore.

R. Walton Moore.
It is said that the Governor has promised to lend his presence on this day at this hallowed spot, where all that is mortal of the Father of his Country awaits a joyful resurrection to that haven of rest where his spiritual body will be clothed in the imperishable robe of immortality.

A State Official Complimented.
Mr. Charles Wood, of the firm of E. & C. Wood, Lansinburgh. N. Y., paid a visit to Richmond in the early part of this spring and in going through the Capitol building he stepped in the office of the Clerk of the House or Delegates. Mr. Wood has published over his signature several articles in the newspapers at the North in relation to his visit to Virginia, and he writes "that nowhere South in any one instance did he fare better as to information furnished, opinions given, or candor evinced than in fare better as to information furnished, opinions given, or candor evinced than in Colonel Bigger's office." Mr. Wood refers to booms in our State and the strenuous efforts being made to induce manufacturers to locate here, and he says it is dawning on many minds that the muchabused tariff bill passed by the last Congress will be as it was intended—beneficial to the South as in other directions. He expressed a great interest in the burial-place of Thomas Jefferson, which he visited, and was pleased at the care taken of it.

The "Home Circle" Growlng.
Since the visit of the Supreme Secretary, Julius M. Swain, to this city this order has pushed itself forward and the two councils are adding to their numbers. New lodges are being formed in Norfolk and Portsmouth with prospects in other places.
This organization is officered and controlled to a great extent by past-supreme regents of the Royal Arcanum, who finding it impossible to have increased insurance in their own order started this, giving insurance as high as five thousand dollars and adding what is known as social members. Efforts are now being made to have a council formed here entirely of ladies, and information is given that it is likely to be successful.

Brookland Club Meeting.

Brookland Democratic Club, No. 1, will hold a rally at its hall in Henrico, opposite Jones's store, to-morrow night at 8 o'clock. Addresses will be made by Colonel Tazewell Ellett, Hon. Conway E. Sands, Meesrs. Simon Solomon, C. W. Childrey, Thomas B. Hicks, and others.

The city ambulance was called yesterday at 4 P. M. to attend a white boy on Twenty-sixth and Main streets, who had masked his finger in some machinery.

HUNGRY SPOILSMEN.

ANXIOUSLY AWAITING HARRISON'S RETURN TO WASHINGTON.

Virginia Aspirants for the New Judgeship The May Queen's address closed with and Clerkship-How They May Go-The Speakership.

> (From Our Regular Correspondent.) expected here within ten days, and then the grand rush for the remaining patronage will be renewed. It is true that not much is left, but what little is to be had the Republicans want. Opinions differ as to when the United States circuit judges will be appointed, and the President's action in this matter will be of great mo-ment to quite a number of seekers after poment to quite a number of seekers after po-sitions. A number of clerks, marshals, and other officers for the new courts are to be selected, and it will make a difference to the as-plying the selection of the courts are reorganized with the additional member provided by the recent act of Congress.
> The clerkship.
> This is particularly applicable to the effective

This is particularly applicable to the circuit that includes Virginia. Butler Mahone is a candidate for clerk of the court, and his most formidable rival is ex-Judge Atkina, of Richmond. It is understood here that the latter has the backing of Judge Bond, and Chief-Justice Puller would probably be more favorably inclined to Atkins than to young Mahone, though it is said that General Mahone has been bold enough to think that the Chief Justice might be willing to have his son appointed. If General Mahone could have his friend Judge Paul elevated he might stand a fair chance of securing the clerkship for Butler Mahone. The clerkship pays well. In addition to the straight salary of three thousand dollars a year there are fat fees that make the position worth as much more.

PROBABLE DISAPPOINTMENT.

A prominent Republican who is well posted says that he does not think the President will announce the nine new circuit judges until the assembling of Congress next December. If so it will be a matter of disappointment to the aspirants for judicial honors. It is held that the courts with the present judges can organize and map out all the work, and that it will really not he necessary to select the additional judge until Congress meets. Then the Senate can act on the nominations promptly, and the President will have the satisfaction of knowing whether his appointees are satisfactory to the highest law-making body of the land.

NO DEMOCRATS NEED APPLY.

Few persons now think that Mr. Harrison will PROBABLE DISAPPOINTMENT.

No DEMOCRATS NEED AFFLY.

Few persons now think that Mr. Harrison will honor any Democrate with circuit judgeships. He is undoubtedly a candidate for renomination, and though it is not pleasant for the logal profession to realize the thing in its fullest sense, yet it is the general belief that the President will make these important judicial positions count for all they are worth in the way of securing Harrison delegates to the next National Republican Convention. If he thinks that giving Mahone's man the appointment will certainly swing the Virginia delegation for himsel, the President will see that Mahone is humored, but it is possible that by giving Virginia the go-by on the judgeship and arranging a little deal whereby the family will get the circkship for Butler Mahone, either General Goff, of West Virginia, or Judge Seymour or Judge Dick, of North Carolina, may be appointed. Maryland is not in the race. Judge Bond is from that State, and this precludes the selection of any Maryland Republican for further judicial honors at this time, no matter how great his prominence or his legal attainments. THE BOSS HARD AT WORK.

Evidences are plainly visible that the Mahon people are hard at work trying their utmost a secure something out of the division and when the President returns to the capital it is safe to predict that General Mahone will renew his efforts with greater vigor. If General Mahone to be given preference it means that the chance of Judge L. L. Lewis will amount to nothing.

to be given preference it means that the chance of Judge L. Lewis will amount to nothing.

CANDIDATES FOR THE GAVEL.

Congressman Peel, of Arkansas has gene to Virginia on a visit. He has a son who lives near Lynchburg, and one of his daughters recently married a Virginia gentleman who resides in the same portion of the State. Mr. Peel is one of the most active and among the ablest Democrats in the House from the Southwest, and in the Fiffieth Congress was chairman of the Committee on Indian Affairs. He has announced that he is for Judge Crisp for Speaker, and in, this differs from his colleague, Mr. Clifton R. Breckinridge, who favors the candidacy of Mr. Mills. For this Mr. Peel has called down the wrath of the cranks in the West who seem to imagine that it is treason to the party to favor any one other than the Texan for the speakership. These same cranks, in the opinion of leading Judge Crisp. Judge Crisp.
THE SOUTH ENTITLED TO IT.

From all that can be learned thus far in advance the more sensible men among the northern Democrats concede that the South is entitled to the speakership, and aside from the candidates from the other sections who are in the race with little or no expectation of winning, but merely to fix themselves for good committee chairmanships, every one believes that either Judge Crisp, Mr. Millia, or Mr. McMillin will be the choice of the Democratic caucus next session. Mr. Outhwaite, of Ohio, who would certainly stand as good a chance as any one of the others from the West, positively refuses to allow his name to be presented, and has declared here frequently that he would support Judge Crisp. If the spoakership should be lost to the South it would be through the foolishness of some of the cranks who yell for Mills or notoxyl if the Speaker is to come from the land of Dixie. The charge that Judge Crisp is not a good tariff reformer is pronounced by leading northern Democrats as the thinnest sort of rubbish.

EXTEND THE B. & O. TO BUENA VISTA Brilliant German.

[Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.]

BUENA VISTA, VA., May 8.—Great interest is being manifested here in the extension of the Ealtimore and Ohio railroad from Lexington to this place, and it is probable that a public meeting of our citizens will be shorrly held to adopt some plan of bringing this important matter to the attention of the railroad authorities.

Colonel Douglas, the general manager, has already stated that this line would be brought to Buena Vista some time during the present year. The extension of this line to Salem has been in contemplation for some time, but the great industrial development which has opened up in this section within the last year presents an inviting and profitable field to this line.

A GREAT STRIKE FOR US.

We made about a week ago the biggest strike in Boys' Clothing that we've made in years. By opening our eyes and our pocket-book we secured two large New York stocks of fine Boys' Clothing. The goods were made for this season's trade, and perfect in style, fit, and finish.

To tell the truth, we did not need the goods, as ur regular stock far exceeds in extent anything shown by us in other years.

But price tempted us and we bought, and the
